

BRANDING FOR D&D HOMEBREW 4TH EDITION

Colours

Standard, all books

Colour	Uses	RGB	Hex
Dark Blue	Header row in tables	33-57-92	21395c
Pale Sage	Banded rows in tables	233-231-209	e9e7d1
Sage	Banded rows in tables Text box shading	204-202-173	cccaad

Specific text boxes

Colour	Uses	RGB	Hex
Olive	Monster block headers	69-87-39	455727
Burnt Orange	Magic item headers	204-143-44	cc8f2c
Green	At Will powers	58-128-80	3A8050
Red	Racial powers Encounter powers	118-0-33	760021
Dark Grey	Daily powers	48-51-50	30332
Wine	Poison/disease/trap	78-17-38	4E1126

Fonts

The templates on 10sided.com in Word use Times New Roman for the serif font and Trebuchet MS for the sans serif font because these fonts are freely available and default Word fonts.

For a more accurate approximation of the branding (and a nicer look) you can use Linux Libertine for the serif font, and Linux Biolinum for the sans serif font. These fonts are free and can be downloaded to your computer.

Wizards of the Coast publications use Mentor for the serif font and Mentor Sans for the sans serif font. You'd have to buy Mentor and Mentor Sans to obtain it. For main headers WOC use DnDVecna and for subheaders DnDLolth. These are the property of WOC and are not for sale and unfortunately there are no good free-to-use substitutes.

Use	Font	Comparable Free to Use Font	Default Word Font
Serif (Body text)	Mentor	Linux Libertine	Times New Roman
Sans serif	Mentor Sans	Linux Biolinum	Trebuchet MS
Sub header	DnDLolth	Eagle Lake; Bridge North	n/a
Main Header	DnDVecna	Eagle Lake; Bridge North	n/a

